Description	Discover the Swiss Alps from a truly unique perspective on a scenic journey aboard a panoramic bus with a glass roof, the only one of its kind in Switzerland. Travel through the heart of the Interlaken region, where majestic Alpine peaks rise above crystal-clear lakes. Along the way, your local guide will share fascinating stories, insider tips, and highlight the best viewpoints, making the journey both informative and unforgettable. Your adventure begins in Interlaken, nestled between the sparkling lakes of Thun and Brienz and watched over by the legendary peaks of Eiger, Mönch, and Jungfrau. From Interlaken, travel to Grindelwald, a stunning alpine village located at the foot of the iconic Eiger North Face. Surrounded by glaciers, lush green meadows, and towering mountain peaks, Grindelwald offers some of the most breathtaking scenery in Switzerland. Enjoy free time to explore the village, take unforgettable photos, and breathe in the fresh mountain air—your first true immersion in the Swiss Alps. Next, continue to Lauterbrunnen, a valley straight out of a postcard and famously known as the Valley of Waterfalls. Around 72 waterfalls cascade down dramatic cliffs. Enjoy free time for lunch and exploration—stroll through the charming village, admire the impressive Staubbach Falls, and soak in the peaceful alpine atmosphere. Finally, sit back and relax on the panoramic glass-roof bus as you return to Interlaken, enjoying one last immersive view of the spectacular Alpine landscapes.
